FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10. 1742.

Madrid, Nov. 20.

THE Court, whatever its real Intentions may be, would appear bent on carrying on the War more violently than ever. With this view we talk of issuing Orders for augmenting every Regiment of Infantry in our Service with a Battalion consisting of 750 Men; and to shew this must not be look'd

Persons of great Fortunes, which is believed to be with a View to their repairing the Outrages of the Austrians as to the Furniture, Stables, Gardens, Parks, &c.

Hague, Dec. 14. General Lantulus has thanked the States General for the Honour they did him in naming him General of Horse, but hop'd they would on account of his great Age and Infirmities excuse his declining Service. But the Prince of Birkenfeldt, who was nam'd to the same Command, is upon the Road in order to enter into our Service, and we begin to apprehend that a Body of our Troops will soon take the Field.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, Dec. 8. Wind S. E. This Morning sail'd the Serpent Bomb to the Westward. Arrived the Shark Sloop of War from a Cruise. Remains the Prosperity, Dolm, for Lisbon.

L O N D O N.

The last Letters from Lisbon say, that on the 4th of November, the King, notwithstanding his Indisposition, assist'd at an Auto da Fe till Eight o' Clock in the Evening, at which time Three Men and Five Women were sentenced to be burnt.

Private Letters from Leghorn say, that the English Squadron in that Road offer'd to land 3,000 Men for the Security of the Port; but that the Regency of Tuscany had excus'd their accepting this Assistance, out of a Nicety in Punctilio as to their Neutrality with the Spaniards.

The Chevalier de Solari, his Sardinian Majesty's Minister at the Court of Paris, had very lately a Conference with Cardinal Fleury, in which he inform'd him, that his Master was resolv'd to recal all his Subjects that were settled in France without Exception; to which his Eminence was pleas'd to answer, that his Sardinian Majesty was certainly Master of his own Subjects, and that if he thought fit to issue such an Order, his most Christian Majesty would do nothing to hinder its Execution.

Private Letters from Bohemia have the following Particulars in relation to the taking of Leutmaritz; the Austrian Grenadiers entred the Town first, near the Monastery of the Capuchins; soon after, the Pandours scaled the highest Part of the Walls by mounting on one another's Shoulders, on the Sight of which the French General surrender'd at Discretion. Count Wallis lost 124 Men in the storming this Place, and is said to have taken 200,000 Florins in the Military Chest.

The Duke of Aremberg is to command in Chief the Forces that are now marching from Flanders towards Germany, four English Regiments are to replace those that quitted Mons, two are to enter into Garrison at Charleroi, and one at Ath. The French are also in Motion on the Side of Luxemburg, and Magazines are said to be erecting for their Use in the Country of Liege.

The Dutch East India Company are taking several experienced Officers both Horse and Foot into their Service, who are to be sent immediately to Batavia with a farther Reinforcement; which confirms the Suspicions that have been for some time entertained here, that things go but indifferently in that Part of the World.

On Tuesday died at his House at Low Layton in Essex, Mr. Carter, late an eminent Brewer in Shoreditch, said to have died worth 100,000l.

On Wednesday last died at her Lodgings near the Church at Islington, the Lady of ——— Bridges, Esq; a Gentlewoman of a large Estate.

On Wednesday Night last several Prisoners found means to escape out of the Gatehouse Westminster. Yesterday the Lords and other Commissioners of Chelsea College met in Killigrew-court, Scotland-yard, and examin'd the superannuated Invalids worn out in the Service of the Crown, several of whom were admitted into the Pension of the said College.

The same Day, the Right Hon. the Lord Limerick gave a grand Entertainment at his House in Privy-garden, at which were present, the Speaker of the House of Commons, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Secretary at War, and divers other Persons of Distinction.

The same Day, Thomas Revell, Esq; one of the Commissioners of the Navy, was suddenly taken ill as he was attending Business with the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and was immediately carried to his House in St. James's Square.

The same Day, Twenty-four Prisoners were tried at the Sessions at the Old Bailey, of whom Three were capitally convicted, viz.

Lot Cavenagh, and

Cordelia Taylor, for a Street Robbery they committed on William Taylor, stripping him of all his Cloaths, except Shoes, Stockings and Shirt.

Thomas Haven, for stealing 39l. 13s. out of the Dwelling-house of Mr. Richard Crofs.

Twelve were cast for Transportation, and Nine acquitted.

The Lords Commissioners of the Treasury have appointed Mr. Thomas Rymer to be Surveyor of Houses for the West Riding of Yorkshire; a Place of 60l. per annum.

A large House is hired in Dartmouth-street, Westminster, for the Reception of Admiral Vernon, his Lady and Family, his Arrival from the West-Indies being daily expected.

A Curious Monument is erecting at the Expence of the Government in Memory of General Monk, near the Figure of King Charles II. in King Henry the Seventh's Chapel.

Mr. Keith being informed that many Persons are at a Loss to account for his publicly excommunicating the B— of London, D— Andrews, the Judge of the Court, and D— Trebeck, Minister of St. George's Hanover-square, at May Fair Chapel, the 31st of October last. This is to satisfy the Publick, that Mr. Keith had throw'd off the Authority and Jurisdiction of the B— of London and his Court, for these sixteen Months past. So that Mr. Keith being independent of them, had a just Cause to excommunicate them in his Chapel, when they assumed an Authority and Jurisdiction where they had none, to discourage the Marriages and Licences, when they could find no legal Methods to suppress them; and therefore the Marriage Fees and Licence, on a Five Shilling Stamp, together with the Certificate, are continued as usual, at One Guinea on Sundays till Six o'Clock at night, except in time of Divine Service, which is from half an Hour after Eleven till One, and from Four till Five; but on Week Days, it is One Guinea till Four, a Guinea and half till Seven, and Two Guineas after Seven.

The Way to the Chapel from the City is thro' Piccadilly by the upper End of St. James's-street, and down Clarges-street, adjoining to the New Market near Hyde Park Corner.
